Such employees are at will and subject to discharge during the probationary period. However, any claim by a probationary employee that their discharge or lay off after 30 days of employment is not for cause, or any claim of discrimination in connection with the employee's discharge or lay off may be taken up through the grievance procedure.

total said amount to the designated Local Union representing the location on a monthly basis and will be paid within ten (10) working days of the date of the payroll.

The Union agrees to indemnify the Company with respect to any claims arising out of the Check Off or V-Cap contributions.

Employees who work more than forty (40) hours in a calendar month will be required to meet requirements of a full time employee for the purpose of initiation fees and dues.

Article 5: Management Rights

Section 1

The right of the Company to manage is recognized. The Company, in the exercise of the customary functions of Management, has the right to manage the Company business, hire, promote, demote, transfer, discharge, lay off, or discipline for just cause, to establish standards of quality and operating standards, change methods or equipment, to maintain efficiency of employees, determine when overtime is required, and establish and amend reasonable work rules and regulations (including but not limited to physical ability testing, and safety policies), to assure orderly business operations, it being understood and agreed that such rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Agreement. In imposing discipline on a current charge, the Company will not take into account any prior infraction which occurred more than 12 months previously. However, in instances where an employee is on a medical or FMLA leave of absence during the 12 month time period after a disciplinary action is issued, the 12 month time period will be extended by the amount of time of medical or FMLA leave occurring within the initial 12 months to ensure 12 months of active employment from the issuance of the disciplinary action. All disciplinary action will be based on the last remaining discipline remaining in the employee's file.

3. Employees directed by the Company to attend a formal disciplinary meeting may request to be accompanied by a Union committee person. An employee being discharged or disciplined shall be given the opportunity to meet with his shift committee person or the plant chairperson in a private area upon request, designated by the Company for a reasonable period of time prior to commencement of the discharge or discipline. The Company and the Union recognize that situations may occur which justify the immediate suspension of an employee pending further investigation and that this section shall not apply to those situations.

4. When the employee or Committeeperson is not available for meeting under Section 3, the Company will advise the plant Chairperson or Committeeperson of the suspension or discharge as soon as possible.

5. When imposing discipline for an attendance violation, management will not take into account any infraction(s) that occurred prior to the 12 month period of active employment, immediately preceding the current charge.

6. When imposing discipline for general and safety violations, management will not take into account any infraction(s) that occurred prior to the 12 month period of active employment, immediately preceding the current charge.

If requested, the Company will provide the Union with the necessary information regarding the proposed out-sourcing to help prepare a business case for determining if the work can be retained by the bargaining unit. If a business case is presented, it must be approved by the parties and the customer before it can be implemented.

Prior to initiating or changing Company work rules or schedules, Management will meet with the Union Bargaining Committee to review the work rules or schedules, explain the reason for the change, and explore alternatives if requested. However, it shall not be a violation of this agreement and it shall not be cause for disciplinary action if any employee honors an authorized picket line of UAW represented employees who are involved in a labor dispute at Ford Motor Company.

Article 10: Grievance Procedure

There is a four (4) step process which is the avenue to resolve disputes arising from the interpretation or application of the provisions in this agreement. The last of these steps involves final and binding arbitration.

Employees and supervision must make every effort to resolve their disputes, failing to reach resolution; Union representation will be provided upon request to assist in the resolution of the dispute prior to being reduced to writing.

Step (1) If the dispute is not resolved, the employee has seven (7) regularly scheduled days from the date at which the employee is otherwise aware of the violation to file the grievance or the matter will be considered closed. The matter reduced to writing must state the specific charge cited and be signed by the Union Representative and the grievant on a form provided by management and presented to the immediate supervisor. All grievances filed for a discharge or termination of an employee will be filed in Step Three (3) of the grievance procedure.

Step (4) The arbitrator will be confined to the interpretation of the explicit provision (s) in this agreement and have no authority to add to, detract from, alter, amend, or modify any provision of the agreement. The arbitrator will not have the right to impose limitations or obligations on either party not specified in this agreement. The arbitrator's ruling will be final and binding on all parties.

The parties may mutually agree in writing to extend time limitations at any step of the procedure.

Arbitrators will be selected from a list(s) provided by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) and the expenses will be shared equally by the Company and the Union. The arbitrator's decision will be submitted in writing. During the life of this agreement, the parties will attempt to agree on a permanent arbitrator from the FMCS list.

An attempt to reinstate a grievance properly disposed of violates the principles of collective bargaining and this grievance procedure.

Attachment C – Attendance Policy

INTRODUCTION

Employees are expected to be on the job, on time, every day that they are scheduled to work. Regular attendance is both the employee's responsibility and a requirement of all jobs. Wherever possible, employees should schedule all medical and personal appointments outside of work hours. Unscheduled absences, late arrivals, and early departures are grounds for disciplinary action. Employees who expect to be absent, late, or leave early are expected to notify his/her immediate supervisor as soon as possible, but no later than one-half hour prior to the start of the shift. The fact that an absence has been reported does not excuse the absence. This policy is a minimum standard for Leaded employees. The Company will comply with all Federal and State laws and regulations.

Key Provisions –

Progressive point system –

- opportunity to stay out of the system
- opportunity to reduce points
- excludes absences for contractual time-off

Point Scale – Range from ½ through 7

- ¼ point for tardiness of less than 30 minutes prior to start
- ½ point for tardiness of less than 4 hour with call 30 minutes or more prior to start
- 1 ½ point for an early quit
- 1 point for an absence with call 30 minutes or more prior to start
- 2 points No call 30 minutes or more prior to start time/No show by start time

Stay out of the System

- Available contractual time to stay out of system includes leaves, vacations, personal days, and holidays, and E-Vac days

Ways to Reduce Points

- Reduce 1/2 point for perfect attendance for thirty (30) days and each successive thirty (30) days.

Scheduled or Mandatory Overtime

Acceptance of overtime creates an obligation to work the time scheduled just like a regular shift and in most cases is the result of special customer request.

In addition, if an employee fails to work mandatory overtime or is tardy for mandatory overtime, he may be disciplined ranging from Informal Counseling to Discharge based on the severity and frequency of the incidents.

If an employee is mandated to work on their scheduled day off and they have a scheduled appointment that conflicts with that mandated day it is the responsibility of the employee to notify his/her immediate supervisor of the appointment. It is the responsibility of the employee to provide documentation for that appointment on their next working day.

Disciplinary Action

The following corrective disciplinary actions apply upon accumulation of points:

7 Point Scale

One (1) Point	1 st Written
Two (2) Points	2 nd Written
Three (3) Points	3 rd Written
Four (4) Points	1 Day Suspension
Five (5) Points	2 Day Suspension
Six (6) Points	1 Week Suspension
Seven (7) Points	Termination

Management is responsible for counseling employees within 3 working days of the last attendance violation providing the employee is present.

The Company may waive the advance call-in requirement when management determines that there are extreme circumstances beyond the control of the employee, which result in the failure to make a call as required above.

Employees may appeal four times in a rolling twelve-month period by providing evidence of the inability to work. Upon return to work, the evidence must be submitted to the HR Manager.

Other Considerations

Upon ratification, employee's attendance points will be reduced to zero.

Attendance points will be frozen while an employee is off for any extended period of time (i.e., FMLA, medical, personal leave and etc.)

If an attendance violation involves a series of consecutive days due to a legitimate illness (unscheduled sick leave) and the Company is adequately notified, the series will only count as one (1) point. However, the Company must receive satisfactory proof of the illness or each day of the series will be counted as a separate point.

Extended Illness – After three (3) consecutive days of absence due to illness, you must present a doctor's statement of care and releasing you to return to work. To return to work, the statement must be signed by the doctor who treated you and must be on that doctor's stationery.

FMLA – Absences covered under the Family and Medical Leave Act or other applicable laws will be considered on a case-by-case basis within this policy.

Attendance Award

Effective starting the quarter following July 30, 2022

A $300.00 perfect attendance bonus shall be paid to permanent employees who achieve perfect attendance (perfect is defined as working all scheduled hours excluding vacation or other paid leave entitlement to include paid union leaves).

The perfect attendance bonus shall be paid to employees on the active payroll provided:

- a. The employee has worked a minimum of 440 straight time hours for the calendar quarter (including any non-production days that the plant did not operate).

Employees who have perfect attendance prior to the date of ratification will receive a one-time award of a paid “Family Day” to be used as an eight (8) hour (or the equivalent hours for an alternative work schedule) pre-scheduled vacation day to be used by December 18, 2022.

Should any seniority employee return to Leadec, they will be placed in the first available position on his/her previous shift.

Due to the operational needs of the business, the Union, the Company and Ford Motor Company will work together to mutually agree upon the number of Leadec, seniority employees who can be made available to apply for the openings at Ford Motor Company at any given time. Employees not scheduling vacation during the annual process are on a first-come, first-served basis for the remainder of the year. The Company and the Union agree that the Company has the responsibility to assure that employees use their vacation time during the calendar year in which it is earned.

The language in Article 16, Sub-section #6 “Any vacation not applied for during the year will be paid in lieu at the end of the vacation year” was intended to apply to vacation not granted or not taken during the calendar year due to operational needs. It was never intended to allow employees the option of not scheduling vacation and being paid for it in lieu of taking it.

The Company will Schedule vacations for any employee who has not scheduled their vacation in accordance with the CBA provisions. The Company will approach the most senior employee and require the person to select any open and available time for their vacation. Once scheduled by the Company, employees so scheduled have one week to switch their scheduled vacation for any open and available time or the Company-scheduled time will be confirmed. To get their preferred vacation time, employees are strongly encouraged to participate in the annual vacation scheduling process.

Additionally, although not specifically addressed in this CBA, both parties agree that once a vacation is scheduled, if that day(s)/week later become a down day(s)/week, the employee is still obligated to take their vacation. If a given day(s)/week is a down day(s)/ week and the employee has not scheduled vacation, the employee cannot be mandated to take their vacation but the Company may allow the use of vacation time if it chooses to do so.

In addition, an employee may re-enter the plan during any open enrollment period, or within 31 days of either the loss of the alternative coverage or if the employee’s alternative plan has a change in covered benefits or costs.

Subject: Letter of Understanding regarding Part-Time Employees

Dear Mr. Ransom:

This Letter of Understanding supersedes the Letter of Understanding dated January 10, 2013. During the course of 2017 negotiations with Leadec facilities management, the parties discussed various Union concerns about part-time employees. The parties recognized the need for Part-Time Employees in all locations. A Part-Time Employee is an employee scheduled to work less than twenty-four (24) hours on a regular continuous basis unless covered by the other terms covered under Part-Time Employees.

Part-time employees who work more than forty (40) hours in a calendar month shall be required to meet the requirements of a full-time employee for the purpose of initiation fees and dues paid to the UAW International Union.

Part-time employees will not be eligible for benefits nor gain seniority. Part-time employees will receive double time for all hours worked on a holiday, as described in Article 15 of the 2017 UAW-Leadec facilities management agreement.

Part-time employees may be used for the following reasons:

1. Weekday absenteeism, including all vacation time, either short to long-term, with or without notice, without offering overtime to our existing workforce. Part-time employees may be scheduled to work daily overtime or on days for which full-time employees receive premium pay as such if they do not displace eligible full-time employees.
2. Weekend paint booth cleaning.
3. Overtime and special projects only after full-time employees have been offered to work overtime. If there is still a need for additional manpower, part-time employees will be scheduled on a rotational basis."
4. Part-time employees may be used on a one-for-one basis for any absence including:
 - a. Vacation, jury duty, bereavement, leaves of absence, etc.

If the Company violates any of the four (4) reasons listed above, the UAW National Ford Department cancel the use of part-time employees only for that portion which violates the four (4) reasons above pending two (2) weeks advance written notice of termination.

There will be Joint Monthly Manpower meetings set up locally to discuss manpower needs. A letter will then be sent to the International UAW, National Ford Department with the Company and the Local Union Chairperson's signatures. Issues or concerns arising from this meeting will be addressed by the national parties.

The Company may discharge or terminate a part-time employee, in which case the employee shall have access to the Grievance Procedure in cases of claimed discrimination on account of race, color, national origin, age, sex or religion. A part-time employee shall be entitled to union representation, including access to the regular Grievance Procedure, in cases of alleged violation of rights arising out of this Letter of Understanding. Therefore, no grievance shall arise from the Union in reference to part-time employees outside of this letter.

In the event of permanent need for seniority employees, the part-time employees will be considered based on work performance, attendance, regular availability, merit and ability. When all is equal, the Company will base its decision to select the employee with the greatest amount of days worked. The intent of the agreement is not to utilize part-time employees in a manner to avoid hiring of full-time employees. There will be no layoffs as a result of part-time employees.

The language in this letter does not modify the existing language in the agreement; however, this letter supersedes all contractual provisions in reference to part-time employees.

Sincerely,

Diane M. Daniels
